

Fabulous festivities

Description

The festive season is a vibrant tapestry of traditions, reflecting our rich cultural and religious diversity. Tell us about your traditions and you could be a winner!

As the year draws to a close, communities, friends and family come together to celebrate in unique and meaningful ways, from special recipes passed down for generations to enjoy at family feasts, to attending cultural and sporting events or making a list of resolutions to herald in the New Year.

Tell us what traditions always make your festive season unique.

Send your answers to afroscenes@afrocentrichealth.com and you could win a R500 Takealot voucher!

Hurry though, the competition closes on 31 January 2025.

Congratulations to our September edition winner!

Chris Sinvula, Assesor, Claims Department: Medscheme Namibia is the lucky winner of our September edition readers' competition.
