

Off to a great start!

Description

Greetings and a warm welcome to the first edition of this year's AfroScenes! As always, we are excited to present a magazine full of compelling features and stories designed to engage and inspire.

In this edition, we feature essential tips on spotting medical aid membership fraud, ensuring you stay informed and vigilant, and we celebrate our incredible people, whose stories of dedication continue to motivate and uplift us all.

We're particularly thrilled to include an exclusive one-on-one interview with our new Chief Financial Officer, Thato Moloele, as we get to know the leaders who are steering our ship.

As a company deeply rooted in healthcare, observing health days is important to us as we continue to prioritise your health and wellbeing. Don't miss our feature on healthy eating and tips for exercising right at your desk.

Over to you

Thank you for being part of our community. We're honoured to have you along on this journey and, as always, we value your thoughts.

We look forward to your feedback through our reader survey in our Fun Stuff section. Let us know what we're doing right, which articles resonate most with you, and any suggestions you have, to enhance your reading experience and you could be a winner.

We hope you enjoy this edition and find as much joy in reading it as we did in creating it for you.
