Description

June is Youth Month in South Africa, reminding us of the power and potential of our country's youth. It's a call to action for change and progress.

Every year on 16 June, we honour the resilience and courage of the youth of 1976 who inspired today's generation to pave the way for a brighter tomorrow. The importance of the youth lies in their innovation, energy, and vision – traits that build the foundation of a thriving nation.

As individuals and as corporate entities, our role is clear: we must actively invest in education, mentorship, and opportunities, thereby setting the stage for prosperity and equity. By nurturing young minds and fostering inclusivity, we secure a legacy of hope, resilience, and growth.

The responsibility lies not only with the youth but with us all – to enlighten, empower, and enable. Together, we can build a future that honours the sacrifices of yesterday with the promise of tomorrow.
