This achievement reflects disciplined execution, strong governance and a deep, sustained commitment to meaningful transformation across the AfroCentric Group.

From a Group Finance perspective, maintaining Level 1 B-BBEE status is a strategic enabler that strengthens revenue sustainability, risk and governance outcomes, and ensures our procurement and commercial decisions drive long-term value.

This achievement was made possible through the consistent application of guidance from the Transformation Team, in close collaboration with the B-BBEE Champions from Procurement, Learning and Development, and Corporate Social Responsibility: Khuliso Ramadolela, Mosah Nkosi, Thapelo Nkholise, Zimkhitha Mtombeni, Banele Gwaza, Amanda Khumalo, Arlene Peterie, Adivhaho Makhavhu, Queen Mmako, Elizabeth Monkoe, Thelma Tshuma, Willa Van der Merwe, Johan Van Niekerk, Zanele Mpanza, Nthabiseng Tshabalala, Gert Heyns, Jeanine Joseph, Blessing Kunene and Kefilwe Sabela.

Your leadership and commitment continue to strengthen AfroCentric's governance maturity, financial resilience and approach to embedding transformation into strategy as a value driver.
