Description

Dear colleagues

Time sure flies when you're having fun! Can you believe we are now at the end of 2022? It has been a lot of fun and most rewarding to see the evolution of our digimag. Thank you to everyone who has contributed and supported our Internal Communications this year. You have been our eyes and ears on the ground, the ones who have helped us to inform the rest of the company about the things they needed to know, the things that shape and grow us as one of the leading players in South Africa's healthcare industry.

We have made so many strides and improvements this year in the way we communicate with you, and much of this is due to your spirit of joining in and constantly giving feedback.

It's these insights as a whole that make us exceptional team players, able to leverage off each other to implement new and exciting ideas, to reach greater heights and offer our clients the caring service and attention they deserve as we enhance our focus on providing a cradle-to-the-grave healthcare solutions ecosystem.

I wish you all well over the holiday season and look forward to seeing you in the new year. We have some handy tips in this issue to help you stay safe and healthy over this period, so do take heed.

Let's get to know each other even better in 2023.
