

This is how AfA operates

Description

The way in which Aid for Aids (AfA) works is what makes it such a successful solution for medical scheme members.

With a 20-year track record, AFA provides a holistic solution across all aspects of HIV management.

We design bespoke solutions for medical scheme members, employees or patients which not only lower the costs of treatment, but also provide the integration required for customer convenience, holistic data analysis and personalised, supportive member engagement.

Supported by world-respected clinicians, we enable the optimal care of patients that has become the global standard in HIV disease management.
