

I believe in equality

Description

To celebrate Human Rights Day on 21 March, we asked you to share a special message for South Africans. Here's what Mohau Radebe of Bonitas had to say.

I'm a multiskilled agent working at the Bonitas Back Office, and I really appreciate being able to connect with colleagues and share my voice on this platform.

I strongly believe human rights are inherent to all human beings, regardless of race, sex, nationality, ethnicity, language, religion, or any other status. Human rights include the right to life. We are all equally entitled to our expression, the right to work, education and so much more.

Meanwhile, as individuals, we should also respect and stand up for the human rights of others:

- We all have the right to live.
- We all have the right to liberty and security.
- We have the right to privacy.
- We all have the right to freedom of speech.
- Most importantly, we all have the right to education.
