The business has been up to all sorts of things these past few months, as you will be able to tell from this bumper edition. Be sure to read about what our colleagues have been up to – there are very exciting events that are sure to bring a smile to your face and add warmth to your days.

First and foremost, check out our special feature on this chilly season. We have curated some tips that will help you make the most of winter. So grab a cup of hot chocolate, snuggle up under a blanket and dive into these articles. To add a bit of fun to the mix, we have prepared a winter-themed quiz for you to enjoy.

Don't forget to share your quiz results with your colleagues and see who comes out on top!

In addition to the fun and games, this newsletter continues to celebrate you, our incredible colleagues. We believe that every individual's story is worth sharing, and we want to hear from you. The Our People section showcases the remarkable journeys and achievements of our team members. In this issue, we're proud to celebrate a colleague who has recently graduated. His dedication, hard work and perseverance serve as an inspiration to us all.

We encourage you to keep sharing your stories, big or small, as we celebrate the diverse talents and accomplishments within our organisation.

Speaking of celebrating, let us not forget the importance of cherishing the little moments in our daily lives. It's easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of work and forget to appreciate the small joys that surround us. Make a point to pause, reflect and find gratitude in the everyday moments, whether it's sharing a laugh with a co-worker, reaching a milestone on a project, or simply enjoying a warm cup of tea.

As we move forward, let us continue to support and celebrate one another, sharing stories, achievements and those little moments that make us smile. Together, we can create a vibrant and positive work environment where everyone feels valued and inspired – and help make AfroCentric a great company to work for!

Stay warm, stay connected and have a wonderful winter season.

Happy reading
