

Katlego Lenake

Description

Administration Assistant, GEMS HEM

Nominated by Kholeka Quluba

I believe that Katlego is the best choice for this recognition. I work with him in GEMS HEM department and strongly believe he is the best employee. Katlego is also currently studying towards his Bachelor of Science in Computing.

Tell us a bit about his background.

Known as the go to person for departmental projects, he always extends a helping hand to colleagues and other business units alike. He is people-oriented and his work shines through and motivates others to reach new heights.

What has made him extraordinary?

His extraordinary qualities lie in his exceptional dedication, unwavering work ethic and his ability to connect with people on a profound level. His commitment to excellence sets him apart, as he consistently goes above and beyond what is expected.

“His extraordinary qualities lie in his exceptional dedication, unwavering work ethic and his ability to connect with people on a profound level.”

How does he inspire his colleagues?

He is our go-to person when system issues arise. Based on his knowledge acquired by his curious mind and eagerness to learn, he is always figuring out easy ways to navigate the system.

What has he achieved in the department?

Katlego has contributed to and developed:

- 4 Gexus Systems Processes
- 2 Gexus Day-to-Day Reports
- In-house Gexus training documents
- Gexus Correspondence (wording)
- Digital Defender
- Projects

What does he do when he's not working?

He indulges in his love for soccer, organising and facilitating kids' tournaments. He also cherishes quality time with his children and going out with friends. In his free time, he immerses himself in psychological and motivational books, further fuelling his passion for personal growth and development.

Category

1. Motivational

default watermark