

A humble hero

Description

You, our employees, are at the centre of our business. It is thanks to your dedication in living our values that AfroCentric can make a sustainable impact in the area we know best – healthcare.

Ephraim Nkadimeng, General Warehouse Assistant: Curasana, is held in high regard by his team because of his integrity, dedication and team spirit.

Since joining the company in 2017, he has been a shining example of hard work and humility. There is no challenge on the warehouse floor that he does not face with a positive attitude.

“He always does more than what’s required to ensure that our customers receive their orders in good time. He’s an upstanding employee and we’d like him to know just how fabulous we think he is,” says Lindiwe Kgomo, Responsible Pharmacist and Senior Manager Operations: Curasana.
