

Fedhealth honours its own

Description

The Fedhealth Quarterly Awards on 26 April, which was attended by about 300 people, honoured employees in the Call Centre, Back Office, Chronic and APMB Department and Clinical Department for their outstanding work.

default watermark

default watermark

Award 1 Jo van Staden, Senior Manager in Client Operations, received an award of appreciation.

default watermark

Award 2 Feroza Patel, Back Office Team Leader in Client Operations, received an award for making a positive difference.

default watermark

Award 3 Karabo Radebe, Executive Office Specialist in Client Operations, received an award for being a top performer.

default watermark

Award 4 Jabulile Masuku, Broker Support Consultant in Client Operations, received an award for 100% attendance.

default watermark

Award 5 Priscilla Seale, Pre-Authorisations Clinical Agent, received an award for being the top performer.

default watermark

Award 6 Thandekile Somfaka, Pre-Authorisations Team Leader, received an award for being the top performer, Team Leader.

default watermark

Award 7 Grace Bam, Clinical Pharmacy Benefit Management Team Leader, received an award for being the top performer.

default watermark

Award 8 Lindelwa Ncube, Service Consultant, received an award for 100% attendance.

default watermark

Award 10 Vukani Ndlovu, Contact Centre Agent, received an award for being a top performer.

default watermark

Award 11 Bonny Mitchell, Nthabiseng Motlhabane and Setlalebatho Jack, Tier2, received awards for always assisting on the floor and helping team leaders.

Category

1. Our Business

default watermark